

POWER UNDER CONTROL

Workplace Electrical Safety 2009 Breakfast Series

CSA Z462 Awareness - Thursday, January 29, 2009

Session 1

This is the first in the series and will provide highlights, the straight facts, and provide the Ministry of Labour perspective, initiatives on this first Canadian Workplace Safety Standard.

Seminar Leaders, Len Cicero- Lenco Training & Technical Services, Communications Chairperson of CSA Z462 Technical Committee, Mike Reiser, P. Eng. Engineering Consultant Ontario Ministry of Labour. Member of CSA Z462 Technical Committee

Case Studies - Wednesday, March 4, 2009

Session 2

Implementing CSA Z462 into the workplace and making it a component of the overall OHS Program Representative- ArcelorMittal Dofasco Inc, Hamilton, ON

Arc Flash Hazard Analysis/Study - Wednesday, April 9, 2009 Session 3

Is it mandatory? What is involved and what information is needed. Also discussed will be when this analysis is not required and requirements for "warning labels".

Seminar leaders - Len Cicero, TBA

Using the Task Tables of CSA Z462 - Wednesday, May 27, 2009 Session 4

Discover in lieu of the "Arc Flash Hazard Analysis", the task tables found in CSA Z462 may be used in determining the hazard risk category and appropriate PPE to be worn based on particular tasks. A brief description of how to use the tables will be discussed.

Seminar leader, Mr. Len Cicero, Lenco Training & Technical Services

Location: STARRT Institute, 481 Barton St. E, Stoney Creek

Cost: $35/session or 4 for $120 (+GST)

Time: 7:30am - 9:00am

To register call: 905.575.2367

CSA Z462

