

youth opportunities

Quality programs like Today's Family Adventure Camp require quality people.

We are looking for:

- Junior camp counsellors
- Youth leaders
- Helping hands
- Adventure camp assistant
- Employees available to work "on-call"

to work with Today's Family staff to provide an adventure-filled summer at our 7 camp locations located in the Hamilton and Burlington communities. Available positions include part-time, full time, 7 week opportunities and "on-call" opportunities. Some positions require transportation.

You will:

- Have experience working with children
- Work in partnership with Today's Family staff and community partners
- Actively participate in all camp program activities (swimming, sports, arts and crafts and weekly outings)

To apply:

Please submit a letter of interest and resume to jobs@todaysfamily.ca with Youth Opportunities stated in the subject line by March 16, 2012.

If you have worked with Today's Family previously, please submit a letter of interest and an updated resume to jobs@todaysfamily.ca by March 16, 2012

