TAKE BACK THE NIGHT (TBTN) MARCH:
Each year students enrolled in Human Service Programs take it to the streets of Hamilton to support women's rights. Use your voice and protest against inequality! Free Food, Swag and Entertainment!

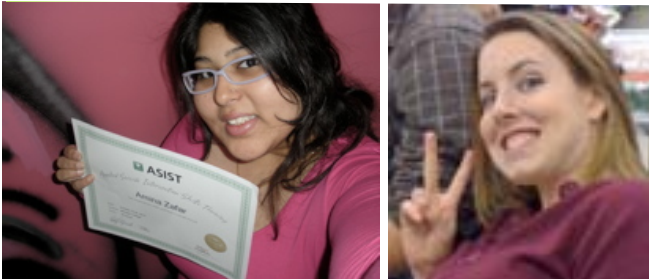

WHEN-Thursday ,Sept. 15 6:30pm

WHERE-Hamilton City Hall-71 Main St.

WHO-Women, Trans-Women and Children only

Quote from First Semester CYW: TBTN was the most empowering experience I have ever felt as a young woman! To march on the streets of Hamilton in unison with women of every kind, disAbled, lesbian, trans, young, old, ethnicity was an experience I will never forget! I will do this every year and can't wait until 2011.

Each October students have an opportunity to earn a certificate that will prepare them to intervene effectively with people contemplating suicide. The ASIST 2 day course is held the weekend before Halloween. See Marco for details and costs.

Meet one of your First semester Profs., Casey Sager. Casey is looking forward to teaching you two courses (Transitions and Group Work). He also works in the community and is a facilitator for the Non-Violent Crisis Intervention Course. Casey is looking forward to meeting all of you and telling you about how to be successful in College and how to work in groups in the field of Human Services. Meet Casey on Sept. 6!
