

Universal Design for Learning Resources

The resources found on this page are great sources of information regarding Universal Design for Learning (UDL).

UDL Standard

The UDL Standard for Mohawk College serves as a resource providing direction for UDL considerations when designing, developing and/or delivering curriculum. Use the links below to review the Standard:

Accessibility Resources

Universal Design for Learning and the accessibility requirements of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) are distinct from each other. However, if you are developing alternate resource options for students, you will want to take accessibility into consideration. For more information on creating accessible documents, please review the "Accessible Documents and Alternate Format" resources on the AODA "Tool and Resources" webpage.

While there are a number of UDL resources here, a variety of others are in the development process. New resources will be added to this page as they are created, found, or obtained. If there is a UDL resource you need, or you know of a resource that would be valuable here, please contact Darla Benton Kearney, Universal Design for Learning Curriculum Consultant, in the Centre for Teaching & Learning, at darla.benton@mohawkcollege.ca or extension 3688.
