

Connect with your future workforce

City School by Mohawk supports labour market integration and development by delivering courses to prepare Hamilton's talent pool. We partner with employers to create awareness of their industry by delivering learning opportunities that can help direct individuals to in-demand careers.

How can you connect?

Sector awareness

- Attend networking events
- Serve as a guest speaker
- Co-facilitate skilled-based workshops

Strategic partner

- Participate in consultation events
- Provide sector insights
- Advise on course development

Community investment

- Provide work experience opportunities
- Foster knowledge mobilization
- Serve as a mentor

About us

City School by Mohawk focuses on developing specialized learning programs and workshops to reduce barriers to education and employment. These programs encourage gradual steps to postsecondary studies and employment and foster life-long learning. City School is supported by the college and through public and private grants.

This project is funded by the Ministry of Training, Colleges, and Universities.
