- A youth is placed in extended society care pursuant to a court order under the Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017.
- Eligibility for continued care and support for youth under section 124 of the CYFSA includes youth aged 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 who had extended society care status that expired at age 18; were subject to a protection (formal) customary care agreement or a protection custody order at age 18; or were receiving support under a Voluntary Youth Services Agreement at age 18. Funding provided by a Children's Aid Society to youth aged 23 or older is not considered continued care and support for youth.
- Public adoptions are adoptions of children in the permanent care of a Children's Aid Society, formerly known as Crown wards. All public adoptions are carried out by a Children's Aid Society. OSAP applicants who indicate that they were previously in extended society care in Ontario (previously called Crown Ward) but were adopted or returned to birth parents, may be required to provide their parental information on the OSAP application if they have been out of high school for less than 6 years.
