

YOUR IDEAL JOB: GERUNDS AND INFINITIVES

1. Do you like to help people in your work?
2. What is most important to you: making sure the job is correct, being accurate and thorough, or creating something new
3. Do you dislike some work, such as using your hands or getting dirty? Do you dislike telling people what to do? Do you enjoy calming down excited or angry people?
4. Do you hope to take a lot of responsibility in the future? Can you be the boss and tell others what to do?
5. Do you expect to be a loyal and reliable employee or more likely independent and self-motivated?
6. Do you enjoy fixing things? Does it please you to make systems work?
7. Do you look forward to solving problems for people?
8. What is more important to you: being a leader or following instructions carefully?
9. Are you used to using language skills in your work?
10. Do you want to work as part of a team or be independent? Do you think first about meeting the needs of the employer, the employee, the customer, or yourself?
